Information on the processing of personal data pursuant to art. 13 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 and EU Regulation 679/2016

F&B Events Srl, as Data Controller pursuant to Legislative Decree No. 196/2003 and EU Regulation 679/2016 - considers privacy and the protection of personal data one of the main objectives of its activity.

It is intended to be made for the website www.psco-conference.org and is an integral part of the Site and the services we offer;

It is made pursuant to art. 13 of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, and EU Regulation 679/2016, to those who interact with the web services of the site, either through simple consultation or through the use of specific services made available through the site (by way of example, the purchase of products, filling in online forms for requesting information, for subscribing to events to the Newsletter service).

The processing of your personal data will be governed by the principles of fairness, lawfulness, transparency, purpose limitation and storage, minimization and accuracy, integrity and confidentiality, as well as the principle of accountability referred to in Article 5 of the Regulations. Your personal data will therefore be processed in accordance with the legal provisions of the Regulations and the confidentiality obligations therein.

Processing of personal data means any operation or set of operations, whether or not involving automated processes, applied to personal data or sets of personal data, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, comparison or interconnection, restriction, erasure or destruction.

PERSONAL DATA SUBJECT TO PROCESSING

We inform you that the personal data subject to processing may consist of an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or one or more characteristic elements of your physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identity capable of making you identified or identifiable, depending on the type of services requested.

Below we list the processing of personal data through this site:

• Navigation data

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate the Site acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols. This information is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but by its very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified. This category of data includes the IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by users connecting to the Site, the addresses in URL notation of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used in submitting the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the user's operating system and computer environment. These data are used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the Site to check its correct functioning, to identify anomalies and/or abuses; in any case, they are deleted immediately after processing. The data could be used to ascertain responsibility in case of hypothetical computer crimes against the Site or third parties.

• Data voluntarily provided by the user

Without prejudice to the reference to specific information contained therein, this Privacy Policy is understood to be rendered also for the processing of data voluntarily entered by you in the various forms contained within the Site. Please do not enter any information that may fall within the special categories of personal data referred to in Article 9 of the Regulation ([...]personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data intended to uniquely identify a natural person, data concerning the health or sexual life or sexual orientation of the person).

• Third party data voluntarily provided by the user

In the use of the services of the Site, there may occur a processing of personal data of third parties, communicated by you to F&B EVENTS as, for example, in the case of purchase of our goods to be shipped to third parties. With respect to this hypothesis, You stand as an autonomous data controller, assuming all the obligations and responsibilities of the law. In this sense, You confer on this point the widest indemnity with respect to any dispute, claim, request for compensation for damages from processing, etc. that may be received by the Data Controller from third parties, whose personal data have been processed through your use of the services of the Site in violation of the applicable data protection regulations. In any case, should you provide or otherwise process personal data of third parties in the use of the Site, you warrant as of now - assuming all related liability - that this particular hypothesis of processing is based, where necessary, on the prior acquisition - on your part - of the third party's consent to the processing of the information about you.

• Cookies and other tracking technologies

Information about the cookies served by the Site is available through the “Use of Cookies” button at the bottom of each page of the Site.

PURPOSES OF PROCESSING

Your personal data will be processed, with your consent where necessary, for the following purposes, where applicable:

• to enable the navigation of the Site and the provision of the services made available therein by the Data Controller, including the management of Site security, as well as contractual and administrative-accounting relationships;

• to respond to specific requests addressed to the Data Controller, including Customer Service requests submitted by filling out the “Contact” form;

• Fulfilling any obligations under applicable laws, regulations or EU legislation, or fulfilling requests from authorities;

• carry out direct marketing via e-mail for products similar to those purchased by you, pursuant to Article 130, paragraph 4 of the Code, unless you expressly refuse to receive such communications, which you may express when registering on the Site or on subsequent occasions;

• to send you promotional and marketing communications, including the sending of newsletters and market research, through automated (sms, mms, email, push notifications, fax) and non-automated means (paper mail, telephone with operator); it should be noted that the Data Controller collects a single consent for the marketing purposes described herein, pursuant to the General Measure of the Guarantor for the Protection of Personal Data “Guidelines on promotional activities and countering spam” of July 4, 2013; if, in any case, you wish to object to the processing of your data for marketing purposes carried out by the means indicated herein, you may do so at any time by contacting the Data Controller at the contact details indicated in the Contact Us section of this notice, without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given prior to revocation;

• analyze your preferences, habits and consumption choices, in order to be able to send you personalized communications and business proposals as well as, to carry out general analysis for strategic orientation and business intelligence purposes;

• to communicate your personal data to other companies in the group to send them promotional and marketing communications, including the sending of newsletters and market research, through automated means (sms, mms, email, push notifications, fax).

• For statistical purposes, without it being possible to trace your identity.

Specific security measures are observed to prevent data loss, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorized access.

LEGAL BASIS AND OBLIGATORY OR OPTIONAL NATURE OF THE PROCESSING

The legal basis for the processing of personal data for the above purposes is Article 6(1)(b) of the Regulation ([...]the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or for the performance of pre-contractual measures taken at the request of the data subject), as the processing is necessary for the provision of services. The provision of personal data for these purposes is optional, but failure to do so would make it impossible to activate the services requested.

The purpose to fulfil any obligations under applicable laws represents a legitimate processing of personal data under Article 6(1)(c) of the Regulation ([...]the processing is necessary to fulfil a legal obligation to which the data controller is subject). Indeed, once personal data have been provided, the processing is indeed necessary to fulfil legal obligations to which the Controller is subject.

The processing carried out for the purposes of marketing, profiling and communication to Third Party Companies of the Group is based on the granting of your consent in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) ([...] the data subject has given consent to the processing of his/her personal data for one or more specific purposes) and Article 22(2)(c) of the Regulations. The provision of your personal data for these purposes is therefore entirely optional and does not affect the use of the services. Should you wish to object to the processing of your data for the purposes of marketing, profiling or communication, you may do so at any time by contacting the Data Controller at the contact details indicated in the "Contact Us" section of this notice. With reference to the purpose of direct marketing by e-mail, it should be noted that if the Data Controller uses, for the purpose of direct sales of its own products or services, the e-mail coordinates provided by the data subject in the context of the sale of a product, it may, pursuant to Article 130, paragraph 4 of the Code, not require the consent of the data subject, provided that the products in question are similar to those being sold and the data subject, adequately informed, does not refuse such use, either initially or on the occasion of subsequent communications. It should also be noted that processing for statistical purposes is not performed on personal data and therefore can be freely carried out by the Data Controller.

RECIPIENTS OF PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data may be shared with:

• parties that typically act as data processors pursuant to art. 29 of the Code and 28 of the Regulations, i.e.: i) persons, companies or professional firms that provide assistance and consultancy to F&B EVENTS in accounting, administrative, legal, tax and financial matters; ii) parties delegated to carry out technical maintenance activities; iii) credit institutions, insurance companies and brokers;

• subjects, entities or authorities to whom it is mandatory to communicate your personal data by virtue of legal provisions or orders of the authorities;

• persons authorized by the Data Controller, pursuant to Article 30 of the Code and 29 of the Regulations, to process personal data necessary to carry out activities strictly related to the provision of services, who have committed themselves to confidentiality or have an appropriate legal obligation of confidentiality;

These individuals are, hereinafter, collectively referred to as "Recipients." A full list of the data processors is available by sending a written request to the Data Controller at the contact details listed in the "Contact Us" section of this policy.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

Some of your personal data are shared with Recipients who may be located outside the European Economic Area. The Data Controller ensures that your personal data are processed by Recipients in compliance with Articles 43 and 44 of the Code, as well as Articles 44 - 49 of the Regulations. Transfers may be based on an adequacy decision or Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission. More information is available by sending a written request to the Data Controller at the address provided in the "Contact Us" section of this policy.

STORAGE OF PERSONAL DATA

Personal data processed for the above purposes will be kept for the time strictly necessary to achieve those same purposes. In any case, since the processing is carried out for the provision of services, the Data Controller will retain personal data for the period of time provided for and allowed by Italian law to protect its interests (Art. 2946 c.c. et seq.).

Personal data processed for the purposes previously described will be kept until the time provided for by the specific obligation or rule of law applicable.

For the purposes to carry out direct marketing, your personal data will be processed until you object to the processing.

On the other hand, for the purposes of sending you communications and analysing your preferences, your personal data will be processed for a maximum period of seven years, starting from their registration, in accordance with the provision issued by the Garante for the protection of personal data following a request for preliminary verification pursuant to Article 17 of the Code submitted by the Data Controller. Further information on the data retention period and the criteria used to determine this period may be requested in writing from the Data Controller using the contact details indicated in the 'Contact Us' section of this notice. This is without prejudice, in any case, to the possibility for the Data Controller to keep your personal data for the period of time envisaged and permitted by Italian law to protect its interests (Art. 2947(1)(3) c.c.).

RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

Pursuant to Article 7 of the Code, you have the right at any time to obtain confirmation of the existence or otherwise of your personal data and to know its content and origin, verify its accuracy or request its integration or updating, or rectification; you have the right to request the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data processed in violation of the law, as well as to oppose in any case, for legitimate reasons, its processing. As of 25 May 2018 you also have the right to request access to your data, to object to the processing, to request the restriction of processing in the cases provided for by Article 18 of the Regulation, where technically possible, as well as to obtain in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format the data concerning you, in the cases provided for by Article 20 of the Regulation.

Requests should be made in writing to the Data Controller at the addresses indicated in the 'Contacts' section of this notice.

In any event, you always have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority (Personal Data Protection Authority), pursuant to Article 77 of the Regulation, if you believe that the processing of your data is contrary to the legislation in force.

CONSENT TO USE OF IMAGES AND VIDEOS

I hereby authorize the use of my images and videos in any form and for any purpose, including but not limited to promotional materials, advertising, websites, and social media. I understand that the images and videos may be modified, adapted, and distributed without further approval from me.

I acknowledge that I will not receive any compensation for the use of my images and videos and that I have no right to claim such compensation in the future. Furthermore, I waive all rights of approval and any moral rights over the images and videos.

CHANGES

The Data Controller reserves the right to modify or simply update the content, in part or in full, also due to changes in the applicable legislation. We therefore invite you to visit this section regularly in order to take cognisance of the most recent and updated version of the Privacy Policy so that you are always up-to-date on the data collected and the use made of it by F&B EVENTS.

CONTACTS

In order to exercise the above rights or for any other request, you may write to the Data Controller at the physical address indicated above, or at the email address info.privacyfebevents@gmail.com preferably, including the words 'Request privacy rights' in the subject line of the communication.
